John Simon Collins

1705 N Rutherford
• Chicago, Illinois   60707, United States • jcolli13@hawk.iit.edu • 7732635341

Summary

- Undergrad student that switched major from Architectural engineering to ITM
- Looking for a chance to gain job experience for future job opportunities as well as the ability to start making income to pay for college education

Education

Illinois Institute of Technology, Chicago, IL October 2016 - Present
Bachelors GPA 2.26
Major in Architectural Engineering

Skills

- Programming languages: Python, MatLab, Javascript
- Operating systems used: Windows
- Completed Engineering Surveying course

Professional Experience

Self Employed, Computer Cleanup and Setup, Chicago
Self Employed, Providing computer assistance to small buisnesses   (Summer 2015)
Performed various computer related services including
- Maintenance of small business network
- Install and updates of software and software security
- Cleanup of Hard Drives
- Safe and Environmentally sound disposal of retired hardware
- Supervised and Managed the build of customized hardware (Computers)
- Designed and produced Multimedia content for customers including slide presentations in Prezi and Powerpoint as well as Video Content

Illinois Technical Robotics, Chicago, Illinois
Drone Pilot   (Spring 2016 to now)
- Pilot of quad for Test flights and competition
- Does Maintenance on quad when necessary

Honors and Awards

- Competed at Midwest Robotic Design Competition with ITR in 2016 and 2017.
- Won App Prototyping competition sponsored by 1871 during the IIT Freelance coding camp.
- Completed Second City Improv training program.